STAT

The Honorable William H. Webster
Director of Central Intelligence
Central Intelligence Agency
Washington, D.C. 20505

Dear Judge Webster:

We are pleased to note from your letter of April 14, 1989, that the Intelligence Community is following up on the findings and recommendations made in the extensive personnel study completed by the National Academy of Public Administration.

We can appreciate that because of the far-reaching nature of the report, affected agencies would want to study it carefully. We are also encouraged that you will have a better idea of a legislative agenda by mid summer.

Since the Committee considers comprehensive intelligence personnel and compensation systems as integral to the success of effective intelligence programs, we intend to review carefully the Community-wide legislative and administrative initiatives once they have been developed.

Consequently, the Committee staff will remain in close touch with [redacted] to keep abreast of your progress and to coordinate our review process, which may include one or more hearings later this year.

Sincerely,

David L. Boren
Chairman
